Invitation for collaboration within the 'Days of Patriarch Pavle' celebration

The magazine of the 'Days of Patriarch Pavle' celebration is a continuation of the idea dedicated to promotion of the figure and work of Patriarch Pavle, originally initiated within the project 'Days of Patriarch Pavle'.

The first edition of the magazine will come out of print in the first half of 2021, and the plan is for the magazine to be published in further annual editions. It can be said that the magazine originates from the idea to collect the texts (poems, tales, speeches, anecdotes) in order to leave a record of the life and work of Patriarch Pavle, and especially from the people who have had the honour to meet him in their earthly lives, to hear and learn from his holiness.

For the first edition of our magazine we have invited respectable people from our time who can contribute a personal testimony of the figure and work of our Patriarch. To our great satisfaction, all of them responded to our invitation. Regrettably, the invitation to late mitropolit Amfilohije was a late one, as it was sent two days before his presentation, and so was the invitation sent to late Patriarch Irinej, leaving us without his personal testimony about Patriarch Pavle, the way he did in Kućanci on 16th November 2019.

We extend this invitation to everybody who can contribute an article on Patriarch Pavle (a song or a poem, a tale, a speech or similar) and especially those who used to know him and were witnesses to his life in line with the Gospels. Your texts and photographs will be used for publication in the next editions of our magazine. We would also like to invite all of you who have been a witness to a memorable event but are unable to contribute it in writing, to ask for assistance. The email address for correspondence is: danipatrijarhapavla@gmail.com

We appreciate the great contribution that you are making to the spread of good faith among the people. Your work is certain to have a lasting memory, owing to the eternal life of our Patriarch Pavle.
