Invitation to choirs for participation in the 'Days of Patriarch Pavle'

The 'Days of Patriarch Pavle' and the city of Čačak announce the invitation for participation in the final evening of the sixth edition of the 'Days of Patriarch Pavle' festivity, which will be held at the beginning of November 2021, extending the invitation to the future events.

Soon after the event was established, it became clear that the artisan wood-cutter colony and the homilies dedicated to the life and work of Patriarch Pavle, a part of the ceremony ought to be dedicated to performances of spiritual and liturgical choir singing, celebrating the memory of Patriarch Pavle.

We welcome applications by professional and amateur choirs performing spiritual music in their repertoire.

Considering that the profile of the previous participating choirs ('First Singing Company of Belgrade', the 'Duhovenstvo' Choir of Sankt Petersburg Archbishopric, the 'Devine Rafael of Banat' and others) inspired a truly great interest in the spiritual music among the audiences, we would be honoured to collaborate with you in strengthening the prominence of this kind of music in Serbia, within our capacities of the project team in charge of this event which has grown into an institution of its own under the auspices of the city of Čačak. It is our idea to originate a festival of spiritual songs. For the time being, we are organising full evening concerts dedicated to Patriarch Pavle within the central event, taking place between 11th and 15th November.
